Prayer to Break Soul Ties

Soul Tie- an ungodly spiritual connection to another person or thing due to an ungodly/inappropriate relationship with them, i.e. sexual, emotional, illegal activity, witchcraft, business relationships, etc.

By the authority that Jesus gives me, I sever and break all soul ties formed between me and _____. Today I say that this tie is cut and cannot be reattached. I send back to _____ all that is theirs, all that is good, washed in the blood of Jesus, and I take back to myself, all that is mine, all that is good, washed in blood of Jesus. By the authority that Jesus gives me, I tell all lies and ungodly spirits associated with this soul tie to leave me now, immediately, permanently, and completely, in Jesus' name. Amen!!!

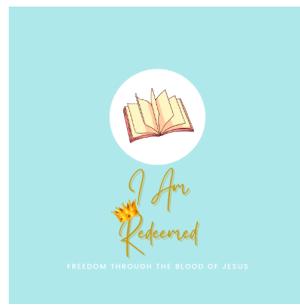

Strategies from the Deliverance Battle Prayer

4 Steps For A Protective Covering

By doing the following 4 specific steps with the Lord, you will create an invisible, impenetrable wall and shield around you where the demons will not be able to attack or harm you. Many people are scared to death to directly engage with demons for fear they will come under some type of an attack by them. But by taking these 4 specific steps with the Lord before you start to engage with the demons, this will give you God's full protective covering on you so you will not have to worry about being attacked by the demons.

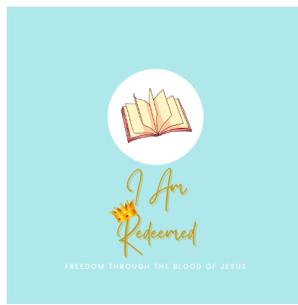

The first thing you will want to do before you start to directly engage with the demons is to get God's full protection on you so that neither you, the host, or anyone else who is in the room will be attacked by these demons. In this type of heavier battle prayer, I will have you do the following so that you can get God's full protection on both you and the host before you start to actually engage with the demons:

1. Put on the full armor of God
2. Ask God to station His battle angels all around you
3. Plead the Blood of Jesus on your body, soul, spirit, and on some of your personal possessions for God's protection
4. Put up the Lord's shield of Faith between you and the demons so the demons cannot get to you with any type of physical attack.

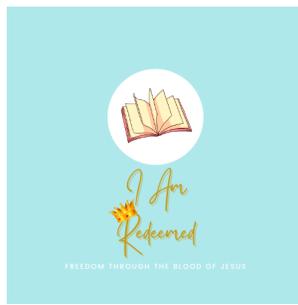

By taking these additional battle steps with the demons, you will completely shut them down and immobilize them so they will not be able to attack or manifest against anyone once you start up the deliverance. The next thing to notice is that you are going to totally bind up all of these demons so they will all be fully paralyzed and won't be able to move to attack either you or the host. Notice the following specific strategies:

1. You will bind up all of the demons so they cannot move to attack either you or the host in any way, shape, or form.
2. You will tell the demons they are to stand down and that they are not to attempt any type of manifestations or attacks against either you, the host, or anyone else who is in the room once you start up the actual deliverance.
3. You will completely cut and sever any lifelines and connecting cords from the demons who are on the inside of the person to any demons who might be on the outside of them, as many times the demons who are on the inside will be taking direct orders from higher ranking spirits who will be on the outside of the person's body.
5. You will also be commanding any other demons who might be hovering around the inside of the room, but who will be on the outside of the person's body, to leave the room and not to come back, so they will not be able to help the demons in any way who are on the inside of the host.
6. The last thing you will need to do is totally shut off all of the communication lines between each of the demons who are on the inside of the person so they cannot try to communicate with one another once the deliverance starts up – especially any communication that could occur between the chief demon and all of the underlings who will be under his direct control and authority.

After you have completely shut them down and basically paralyzed them, you will then let them know that all of their waters have been completely dried up and from there, you will go in there under the power of the Holy Spirit and completely tear down and demolish the inner kingdom they had built up on the inside of that person over the number of years they had been in them. Once that inner kingdom has been totally tore down and demolished by the power of the Holy Spirit moving against it, then you will finish them off with the last part of the battle prayer where you will then tell them they will now have to leave this person since all of their legal rights had been properly broken before the Lord in step 4 above. You will bind all of the lesser demons to the chief demon and then cast them all out as one spirit instead of trying to cast all of them out one by one, which would take a lot longer to do. Since you will have no idea on how many demons could possibly be on the inside of a person, it will be much easier and much more effective and productive, not to mention saving a lot more time, to just bind all of the lesser demons to the chief demon and from there, just cast all of them out as one spirit once you have properly broken all of their legal rights earlier on. By taking these kinds of extra steps with the demons, you will severely weaken and cripple them and from there, they will be much easier to cast out once you start commanding the demons to leave the person in the name of Jesus.

Normal signs of deliverance include but are not limited to:

Vomiting
Gagging
Burping
Spitting
Snot
Tears
Sneezing
Coughing
Passing gas
Screaming

We recommend being in a place where you will not be heard or disturbed. We recommend covering all of the people in your place of deliverance with the Blood of Jesus. We recommend having tissue, and a wastebasket handy. Deliverance is spiritual but your body feels the blow of it. Being sleepy after deliverance is a normal after-affect of the process you've gone through.

Your choice to do deliverance is between you and the Lord: we claim no responsibility for your choice to self-deliver or deliver another person. We claim no responsibility for the results.
